CUSTOMER TESTIMONIALS

"When I call, they are here. The turnaround time on service calls, and also calls on new products, are always handled in a prompt manner." - Verna Shamblee, Director of Facilities at Macmillan.

"We were particularly pleased with the level of service we received from Idesco, especially in terms of being willing to coordinate between Public Safety, the general contractor and the trades, and, especially, with our ITS department. By keeping all of us informed early on, Idesco prevented many of the headaches normally associated with this scale of project." - Gene Palma, Executive director of Public Safety and Transportation at Adelphi University.

"With the thousands of transactions that occur daily, we are thrilled with the number of granted entrances or non-granted entrances. We could have so many complications, but everything works flawlessly. We couldn't be happier." - George D. Yang, Administrator of ID Center/Public Safety at Baruch College.
